

Marine Spatial Planning in Washington: Comment Sessions

© Chris Metcalf

This is your opportunity to provide comments on Washington's framework for marine spatial planning. A draft report and recommendations have been developed by the State Ocean Caucus, an interagency team chaired by the Governor's office. The public comment period is open until October 5th. State agency representatives will be on hand at these sessions to explain the draft report and listen to your opinions.

Session Dates & Venues:

Monday, September 20, 3:00 – 5:00pm
Washington State Conference & Trade Center
1400 6th Avenue, Seattle
Room 210

Friday, September 24, 3:00 – 4:30pm
Following the Northwest Straits Commission meeting
San Juan Island Grange Hall
152 First Street North, Friday Harbor

Monday, September 27, 2:00 – 4:00pm
Breazeale Interpretive Center
Padilla Bay National Estuarine Research Reserve
10441 Bayview-Edison Road, Mt. Vernon

Wednesday, September 29, 2:00 – 4:00pm
Center for Urban Waters
326 East D Street, Tacoma
Large Conference Room

Thursday, September 30, 1:00 – 4:00pm
Westport Maritime Museum, McCausland Hall
2201 Westhaven Drive, Westport

